

THE PRETTY THINGS

Cindy Palin ©September 2017

A D A D
You can sway you can swoon, you can worship the moon
E F#m E F#m D
But I know the one who hung it for you, can't you hear him callin' for you now?
D A E D A E
No it's all about the pretty things, the sound of our voices analyzing
D A C#m F#m A/E
And our heroes wear capes, 'cause the cross is passé - hey
D A E
I'll take Jesus any day

A D A D
You can gaze at the stars, read your horoscope charts
E F#m E F#m D
But I know the one who knew your birthday, long before your parents said "hello"
D A E D A E
Oh it's all about the pretty things, our ideas advancing
D A C#m F#m A/E
Let our heroes parade, we've forgotten the grave - hey
D A E
I'll take Jesus any day

F#m D A E
When tradition falls hard and contrition fades
F#m D A E
I will not be alarmed He predicted today
F#m D A E
When the moon waxes cold and your magic has freyed
D A E
Lay your pretty things down and pray
D A E
Lay your pretty things down and pray

You can question the truth, put your trust in your youth
But I know that somewhere in the middle
Everyone plays second fiddle soon
Yeah I have my doubts about pretty things, It's all about the meaning
And the life that he gave when the stone rolled away - hey
I'll take Jesus any day
I'll take Jesus any day